

AXA Mansard Insurance plc opens another channel for wealth creation.

Everybody would like to earn a little more money but usually, finance and time are major constraints. This in effect deters us from achieving our goals of starting up our own/new business. The good news is that AXA Mansard Insurance plc has opened up for you a channel for wealth creation. By leveraging your existing network and partnering with AXA Mansard Insurance plc, you can create a source of regular income for yourself!

Now here is more...

This is a one of a kind Business Partner program. It will avail you the unique opportunity to act as a Business Partner Associate (BPA). You will on behalf of AXA Mansard Insurance plc, offer our specially designed retail insurance products and by so doing, give those in your circle of influence an opportunity to buy our products at their convenience and from someone they can trust - YOU.

Who qualifies to be a Business Partner Associate?

The only thing you need in order to become a successful BPA is a contact list of friends, family, colleagues (present and former), business links and other acquaintances. It's that simple!

Don't know much about Insurance/Not a natural born sales person.

As a BPA, you will not be "knocking on doors" and soliciting patronage from strangers; AXA Mansard Insurance plc has put together a winning team for that. A BPA simply designates one or two hours per day focused on applying the practical skills and activities that would have been taught by our sales trainers. We believe that applying these skills appropriately to people you already know, will bring you success; and that is why partnering with you will be mutually beneficial.
